Borrego Valley Ranch, (BVR) is a 210-acre horse ranch surrounded by the beautiful Anza-Borrego State Park. We provide full-service horse boarding on a daily, or monthly basis.

Our 24 X 24, 3/4 covered pipe, shed row stalls provide ample room for your horse's comfort.

Our individual lockable private tack-rooms give you peace of mind for the safety for your tack.

Horse Trailer Parking is also available at no extra charge to boarders.

Our facilities include two large riding arenas, three wash-racks (one covered), four round-pens, six hitching-rails, and several turn-outs.

The shaded picnic and barbeque area is a great place to meet your horse friends and hang out.

The surrounding area features unlimited riding trails and many canyons and mountain trails just a short trailer ride away, including the California Riding and Hiking Trail and Pacific Crest Trail.

Horses are fed alfalfa or Bermuda twice a day in rubber tubs on rubber mats to reduce sand and dirt ingestion.

We also offer beginner and intermediate Horsemanship and Riding lessons by appointment.
